

Pacific Symphony Youth Orchestra

An education program of the Pacific Symphony

2011-2012 Season Series

1 The Planets

Sunday, November 20 • 4pm

Travel through the galaxy as the PSYO takes you on an adventure to Mars and Jupiter with Holst's the Planets! Your galactic travels continue with Star Wars Main Title before coming back down to earth for a trip the museum with Mussorgky's "Pictures at an Exhibition."

2 Dvorak and America A Music Unwound Presentation

Sunday, March 4 • 4pm

Journey into the mind of composer Antonin Dvorak as Joseph Horowitz and PSYO Music Director, Maxim Eshkenazy take you beyond the score in this Music Unwound presentation of Dvorak's Symphony No. 9 "From the New World." Presentation includes live drama, multi media and orchestral performance.

3 Pines of Rome

Sunday, May 12 • 7pm

The PSYO closes the season with Respighi's passion-filled Pines of Rome. Program will also feature a solo performance by the winner of PSYO's concerto competition (winner to be announced in January, 2012).

Subscriptions $48
Single tickets $18

For tickets call:
Weng Valdez
(714)875-7020
Jumar Valdez
(714)686-8836

Seegerstrom
Center for the Arts

All Concerts Presented at
The Renée and Henry Seegerstrom Concert Hall
615 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa

Maxim Eshkenazy, Music
Director

This program is not affiliated with the school or school district. The school district does not endorse or sponsor this activity